SURRENDER OR REMOVE AUTOCRATS, SAYS PRESIDENT TO GERMANY.

President Wilson has answered Germany's latest note regarding peace. In brief, he informs Germany that the only armistice he would feel justified in submitting for consideration to the allied Governments would be one which would leave the United States and the allied Powers in a position to enforce any arrangements that may be entered into and to make a renewal of hostilities on the part of Germany impossible. To this end the President has transmitted his correspondence with the present German authorities to the allied Powers. "Not peace negotiations, but surrender," will be the demand, if the United States has to deal with the military masters and the monarchical authorities of Germany. The following is the Associated Press story from Washington:

"WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—President Wilson has informed the German government that he has transmitted its correspondence to him seeking an armistice and peace, to the allies with the suggestion that if those governments are disposed to effect peace on terms and principles indicated by their military advisers and the military advisers of the United States be asked to submit the necessary terms of such an armistice as will fully protect the interests of the peoples involved."

"He says that should such terms of armistice be suggested, acceptance by Germany will afford the best concrete evidence of her unequivocal acceptance of the terms and principles of peace."

"The President's reply to the last German note was made public here and will be transmitted to Berlin through the Swiss legation immediately."

"It says that having received the solemn and explicit assurance of the German government that it unreservedly accepts the terms of peace and principles enunciated by him and that the desire to discuss the details of the application emanated not from those who hitherto dictated the German policy, but from ministers who speak for the overwhelming majority of the German people and having received explicit promise that the humane rules of civilized warfare will be observed by the German armed forces the President feels he cannot decline to take up the question of an armistice with the allies."

"The President says that significant and important as the constitutional changes seem to be which are spoken of by the German foreign Secretary it does not appear that the principle of a government responsible to the German people has been yet fully or permanently worked out. He reiterates that the nations of the world do not and cannot trust the word of those who have hitherto been the masters of German policy and gives warning that if the United States must deal with the military masters and the monarchical autocrats of Germany now or later, it must demand not peace negotiations but surrender."

GOOD PRICES OBTAINED AT WOODFORD SALE.

There was a good attendance Tuesday at the sale of livestock, farming implements, crop, etc., by Mrs. C. S. Woodford, administratrix of the estate of her husband, Mr. Wm. B. Woodford. The bidding was active and spirited. The sale was conducted by Auctioneer M. F. Kenney. The following prices were reported by Mr. Kenney:

Yearling cattle sold at $10.50 to $10.75 a hundred pounds, cows at $10.75 to $15.00 a head, calves $30 to $60 a head, horses at from $50 to $100 a head, breeding ewes $16.50 a head, aged mules $25 to $100 a head, yearling mules $125 a head, sows $25 to $40 a head, catty shoats $16 a hundred pounds, hay in barn $18 a ton, straw a rick $20, corn standing in field $40 an acre. Farm implements brought good prices.

A SPLENDID LIKENESS.

In the show window The J. T. Hinton Co., there is on exhibition a remarkably life-likeness portrait in oil of Rev. W. E. Ellis, the popular pastor of the Paris Christian church. The portrait was painted by Mrs. Hattie Hatcher Hill, an artist of more than local fame. The portrait is an excellent one, and evidences the genius and skill of the artist.

Mrs. Hill has painted a number of excellent portraits, notably those of the County Judges of Bourbon County, which hang on the walls of the County Court room. This late one, now in the Hinton show window, is a striking testimonial of the artist's talent.

PRESIDENT WILSON FLATLY COMMENDS STANLEY'S CANDIDACY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The "whole-hearted support" of Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, goes out to Gov. A. O. Stanley in his campaign for the United States Senate.

Anyone who doubts this may go to Hickman, Ky., and call on the Rev. E. L. Miley, pastor of the First Christian church, of Hickman, who has in his possession a personal telegram from the President expressing in unmistakable terms Mr. Wilson's desires regarding the election of Gov. Stanley.

Here is the President's telegram: "The Rev. E. L. Miley, First Christian Church, Hickman, Ky.: I earnestly desire the election of Gov. Stanley to the United States Senate. I supposed that my whole-hearted support of him was well known throughout Kentucky."

Exactly where the Republican papers in Kentucky are going to land with their claim that the President is not back of Gov. Stanley is difficult to see.

Not only has the President sent the telegram mentioned above, but the Courier-Journal correspondent has authoritative information that the President stands ready and willing to furnish anything in the nature of an endorsement that Gov. Stanley wants.

In fact, it is known that the President will shortly repeat in another form the earnest wishes that Gov. Stanley be sent to the Senate to take the seat left vacant by the death of Ollie James.

The effort of Republican papers to make capital out of the letter the President wrote Senator J. C. W. Beckham necessarily fails flat. The letter was merely a letter wishing Senator Beckham good luck on his departure for Kentucky to assist in opening the campaign.

Taking it for granted that everybody in Kentucky knew he was for Gov. Stanley, the President did not attempt to go into details on the subject.

Now he has expressed himself to the Rev. Mr. Miley, and this will be followed by statements which will show with equal conclusiveness how he feels toward Gov. Stanley and his candidacy.

Another charge of the Republican press is that the purpose of Governor Stanley's recent visit to Washington was to be an endorsement from the President. As a matter of fact, the question of an endorsement was not mentioned at the half-hour conference Gov. Stanley had with the President.

The President exhibited the keenest interest in the Kentucky situation and expressed sincerest desire for the Governor's victory. As indicated in the President's telegram to Mr. Miley both the President and Gov. Stanley took it for granted that the President was known to back Gov. Stanley to the limit.

Gov. Stanley, it was learned here Wednesday, has never applied to the White House for an endorsement. Nor have his friends made any effort in that direction. The President's telegram to Mr. Miley went in response to an inquiry from Mr. Miley as to the President's views regarding Gov. Stanley's candidacy.

RED CROSS TEA ROOM.

Contributions of the following articles are desired for the Red Cross Tea Room: Butter, milk, eggs, cream, chickens, tomatoes and other vegetables, ducks, old hams, pies, cakes, beaten biscuit, Sally Lunn brown bread, ice cream, etc. If parties desiring to contribute any of the articles mentioned cannot deliver them at the Room, the ladies will send for them upon being notified by telephone, Home phone 240, where to call. They especially desire small fresh pumpkin pies for next Thursday which is Halloween.

On that day the Rooms will be closed at noon, but will be open from 5:30 p. m. on, when a "Halloween Supper" will be served consisting of delicacies and substantial appropriate to the occasion. There will be music, fortune-telling and other Halloween amusements, all of which will tend to make the patrons a most enjoyable Halloween.

The Chairman for the week will be Miss Louise Wyatt, with the following staff of assistants: Misses Elizabeth Tarr, Alice Rogers Clay, Patsy Clark, Charline Ball, Mrs. Walter Dalby and Mrs. Birch Meintz.

The menu for to-day (Friday) is as follows:

Oysters in any style; celery; chicken pie; spaghetti au gratin; kasha; beaten biscuit; head lettuce; cake; ice cream; chocolate sauce.

Yesterday the young women served a special fried chicken dinner, the principal ingredient, the chickens, having been donated by the members of the Leesburg Red Cross Chapter. Mrs. George Ellis, of The Cash and Carry Grocery, donated ten per cent. of her sales yesterday to the Tea Room. To-day the ladies will have an oyster dinner, with a special shipment of fresh oysters direct from Baltimore.

INFLUENZA SITUATION HERE REMAINS "ABOUT THE SAME."

There have been no new developments of particular interest to the public in the influenza situation here. Two or three new cases have been reported to the Board of Health, and all those that have been previously reported are doing well. The Board of Health and the physicians of the city and county have, the situation well in hand, and it is thought that the threatened epidemic will not materialize.

Dr. C. G. Daugherty, local Health Officer, stated yesterday that there was nothing of special interest to report, and that the Board of Health is very well pleased with the aspect of things as they are at present. He said that, as a matter of course, the disease had not been stamped out, but that the situation was somewhat better than it has been. Dr. Daugherty also said that he was gratified to note the ready compliance of the public with the regulations imposed by the Board with the view of safeguarding the public health, and that to the spirit of co-operation the people had shown was due a great deal of the credit for keeping down the disease. He was very optimistic regarding the prospect for the future, and said that in about ten days perhaps, the danger may have been passed. As compared with many other places Paris has been very fortunate, he stated, and it was to be hoped that this good state of affairs would continue unabated.

The damp weather of the past two or three days has increased the number of colds and bronchial troubles, and it will be wise for everyone to keep an eye to their personal welfare, and promptly treat the very first appearance of a cold. If neglected it might invite the way to influenza or pneumonia.

CHANGES IN EXPRESS FORCES.

Several changes have been made recently in the office force of the American (formerly The Adams) Express Co., in this city. Mr. J. H. Hay, of Maysville, becomes night clerk, succeeding Mr. Horace Bartlett, who has been transferred to the delivery service in the city. Mr. Harry Slicer, of Nepton, has taken a position with the Company as transfer men.

BOURBON MAN ARRESTED CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Detectives Malcolm Brown and Waller Marshall, of the Lexington police force, came to Paris, Monday, and accompanied by Deputy Sheriff James Gibson, of this city, arrested Wm. G. Kiser, son of G. Wat Kiser, and Will Kearns, also of this county, charged with the killing of Dillard Tudor, in Fayette county, Saturday night.

According to information at the time the shooting took place near the Haggin pumping station, on the Russell Cave pike, in Fayette county. The details of the affair have not been learned, as attorneys for the men implicated advised them to say nothing for publication. Tudor was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Lexington, where he died Monday night. He was employed on the farm of R. E. Tipton, in Fayette county. His dying statement was taken a short time before he expired. Kiser and Kearns, both of whom are about nineteen years old, were taken to Lexington and placed in the Lexington jail.

The examining trial of Kiser and Kearns was held before County Judge Bullock, in Lexington, yesterday morning. Kiser was held over to the Fayette Circuit Court on a $2,000 bond, while Kearns was discharged. Bond for Kiser was furnished by his father, Mr. George Watson Kiser, and his attorney, Judge Denis Dundon, of Paris, and he was ordered to appear before the Circuit Court.

In a statement made by Tabor to Coroner, Magistrate Dodd and Lieut. of Police Donlon, of Lexington, he said that he and a man by the name of Levi Willis were driving down the Russell Cave pike from the Kearney and when they got to the concrete bridge at Russell Cave, just below the Haggin pumping station, they were stopped by Allen Jones, a colored man who worked with them as a farm hand on the Tipton farm. He said that Jones explained to them that he had ridden out from the cross-roads with two young white men who were standing by a buggy, while their horse was feeding. These two white boys who were with the colored man had a supply of whiskey and asked Tabor to take a drink with them. They had several drinks and the whole party were getting intoxicated. They finally became involved in an argument which wound up in a free fight, in which he had whipped one of the boys, neither one of whom he knew personally. Tabor said that the other boy then declared, "My name is Kiser, and that's not a d-d man in the crowd that can whip me," and that he drew a revolver and shot him (Tabor). This statement, the police say, was fully corroborated by Allen Jones.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Charles Belcher, formerly of Paris, where he was employed in the bakery of H. J. Gresh, died recently in a French hospital from wounds received in battle.

Dr. Elmer Swetnam, of Centerville, and Dr. H. B. Anderson, of Shawhan, will leave to-day for Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., where they will report for duty in the U. S. Medical Reserve Corps. Both have been commissioned as First Lieutenants in the service.

Sergeant Frank P. Benjamin passed through Paris accompanying the body of Corp. Curtis May to Fleming county for burial. Corp. May died of influenza at Camp Jackson, in South Carolina. He was a member of Battery A., 12th Regiment, Field Artillery at Camp Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, who reside near Millersburg, have received a letter from their son, Case Bailey, who was reported in the casualty lists as "missing in action." Young Bailey stated that he had been wounded and was in an army hospital in France, but was recovering and would soon be able to report to his regiment for service.

Letters from Scott Woodford and Brooks Woodford, state that the former is with a machine gun company and in the thickest of the fighting. Brooks Woodford is with the big guns about a mile behind the trenches. He had just come out of the lines after seven days of battle. He had not taken off his clothes during the whole time. Both are well.

News has been received here of the serious condition of Dallas Keller, formerly of Frankfort, from being gassed in France, where he was a member of the Ambulance Corps. Young Keller is a son of Dr. Harvey Keller of Frankfort, whose youthful days were spent in this city, where the family resided on Vine street, and is a grandson of the late Mr. Green R. Keller, editor and proprietor of the Carlisle Mercury.

Mr. Roger T. Thornton, of Lexington, who married Miss Louise Sullivan, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Sullivan, formerly of Centerville, is now employed in the plant of the Buffalo, New York, Fargo Company, in making large fans of great power, which are used in the fighting tanks at the front. The air in the tanks must be changed, just as in a submarine, and these great fans change all the air in the machines every five minutes. Mr. Thornton is at present visiting his old home in Lexington.

Lieut. James W. Neal, of Paris, a graduate of Transylvania University, is in a French hospital, recovering from wounds received in action. In a letter to President Crossfield, Lieut. Neal tells of a narrow escape. A shell exploded within a few feet of where he was standing, but by throwing his body forward, he escaped the worst of the discharge. Lieut. Neal received his commission from the Officers' Training School at Ft. Benj. Harrison, and was for a time assigned to Camp Funston, in Kansas. His regiment, the 137th Infantry, is a Kansas Unit.

Private Joseph T. Moran, Base Hospital 115, Postoffice 751, American Expeditionary Forces, France, has written to Paris and Lexington relatives and friends, for information of Thomas Moran, Jr., who was with William Martin's racing stable at Saratoga, New York, when last heard from. Both are sons of the late Thomas Moran, formerly of Paris, and brothers of Mrs. James E. Craven, of Paris. Inquiry of Mrs. Craven yesterday developed the fact that Thos. Moran was at Laurel, Md., where he had been very ill with influenza. He had been summoned to appear before the Bourbon County Draft Board, but his illness prevented him from leaving the hospital at Laurel.

Mr. J. Miller Ward, of near Paris, received a letter Tuesday from his son, Lieut. Sam Clay Ward, in France, in which he described the thrilling scenes enacted in a battle in which his command took a prominent part. Lieut. Ward stated that his name must certainly be "Luck," as every officer in his command was killed. The horse he was riding was shot from under him, and he escaped injury by a hairsbreadth. Lieut. Ward added that he was now riding a German horse, with German saddle, bridle, and all the equipment. Among the officers killed in the engagement was one who had visited Lieut. Ward at the home of his parents, near this city, some months ago. This was the first time Mr. and Mrs. Ward had heard from their son for many weeks, and they had begun to be uneasy as to his safety.

Shortly after his arrival on French soil, a matter of some weeks ago, Albert Wachs, formerly of Paris, and one of the Bourbon county contingent at Camp Taylor, wrote Mrs. S. M. Turpin, of Paris, giving his impressions of the places he had visited. Wachs stated that he sailed from the States on Sept. 8, and reached a foreign port of embarkation some days later. He said that Uncle Sam must have known that his birthday was close at hand, as he landed in France

BIG SHIPMENT OF EGGS AND POULTRY TO SOLDIERS

The Paris Realty Co., shipped by Express to Camp Taylor yesterday to the soldier boys thirty-four dressed hens and chickens, one jar of jam and one glass of jelly, and turned over to Mrs. Nellie Highland about sixty dozen nice fresh eggs, which were donated and brought to the office of the Paris Realty Company by the following patriotic people of Bourbon county:

Mrs. Shropshire, Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. T. W. Napier, Mrs. David Kennedy, Mrs. E. B. Kennedy, Mrs. Rufus Kenney, Mrs. Frank Ransfield, Mrs. E. P. Hough, Mrs. C. W. Plummer, Mrs. E. F. Poe, Mrs. Jesse A. Leach, Mrs. Claude Fowler, Mrs. Eliza Maybrier, Mrs. Wm. Etter, Mrs. Otha Bays, Mrs. E. R. Sagerser, Mrs. James Shanks, Miss Lizzie and Maggie Ryan, Mrs. George Boaz, Miss Sadie Fuller, Mrs. W. J. Calvert, Mrs. J. J. Veatch, Mrs. Wm. Ballard, Mrs. B. C. Wheat, Mrs. Rebelle, Mrs. E. N. Gifford, Mrs. George Riggs, M. J. N. Teager.

Mr. C. P. Mann wishes to thank one and all for their liberal offerings, and especially Mrs. William Ballard, of this city, and Mrs. George Marshall, of the country, who took an active part in soliciting and bringing in the above. If there are any others who wish to donate to this cause, he urges you to bring what you have to the Paris Realty Co.'s office on Wednesday. They will continue to ship so long as the epidemic rages among our soldier boys.

Since she undertook the work of receiving and shipping eggs, poultry and delicacies to the sick at Camp Zachary Taylor, Mrs. Nellie Highland has forwarded a total of one hundred hens and 130 dozen eggs to the Camp. These were contributions from people all over the city and county. The response from the country people has been very generous and their assistance in this respect has been the means of gathering in a large lot of poultry and eggs. The recent contributors to the cause are as follows:

Mrs. Claudia Petree, Miss Lucy Petree, Mrs. A. P. Adair, Mrs. H. C. Parvin, Mrs. A. S. Thompson, Mrs. Dr. Ferguson, Mrs. Sallie Hedges, Mrs. Andrew Reffert, Mrs. John Reffert, Mrs. Marion Day, Mrs. Julian Frank, Mrs. Newton Taylor, Mrs. J. B. Dempsey, Mrs. Edward Burke, Mrs. Thomas Roche, Mrs. M. J. Lavin, Mrs. H. J. Santen, Mrs. Wm. Shrote, Mrs. Mary Welsh, Mrs. James Shea, Miss Ellen Shea, Mr. and Mrs. John Dean, Miss Current, Mrs. James Viley, Mrs. Thos. Redmon, Mrs. Sam Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fisher, Mrs. George Current, Mrs. Walker Kiser, Mrs. I. C. Haley, Mrs. Amos Turney, Mrs. J. Frank Clay, Mrs. Dudley Rose.

INSURE YOUR TOBACCO.

Insure your tobacco in the barn against fire, wind-storm, etc. We settle quick.

Thomas, Woodford & Bryan.

In time to celebrate it. Wachs is a member of the 34th (Lincoln) Division of the American Expeditionary Forces, of which a number of Bourbon county boys are members. He reports the boys all well and contented, and ready to do their share of the work whenever and wherever the call comes. Since he landed on foreign soil Wachs has seen parts of England, Scotland, Ireland and France, and says he is confident that he will yet get a chance to see some part of Germany, possibly Berlin and the palaces of the Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs.

The call to the colors under the last selective draft of men between the ages of eighteen and forty-five includes, in Fayette county, the names of several Bourbon county men who have been residing in Lexington several years. In a recently published list of draft members appeared the name of James W. Grinnan, who for several years conducted a harness and saddlery store in Paris.

Lieut. Rogers T. Moore, formerly of Paris, who won his commission at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, has received a promotion to the rank of First Lieutenant, and is now stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla. He is a son of Mr. Thos. E. Moore, Jr., formerly County Attorney of Bourbon county, and very popular here. His friends are pleased to learn of his promotion in the service.

Captain H. N. Royden, commandant at the University of Kentucky, received a telegram from the War Department stating that all the students in engineering must remain in college to complete their course, and can not be used to fill calls received recently for men to be sent to officers' training schools at Camp Pike, Arkansas; Camp Hancock, Georgia, and Camp Fremont, California. This will affect a number of Paris and Bourbon county boys.

Furloughs of S. A. T. C. men at the University of Kentucky have been extended a week, or until November 3, by order of Captain H. N. Royden, commanding officer, as the influenza situation is still regarded as serious. Furloughs were granted from October 11, when the spread of the disease among the soldiers first became evident, until October 28, and while there has been a marked decrease in new cases reported within the week, it was thought unsafe to bring approximately 700 men back to the campus next Monday.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

New Questions Ahead.

The Senate proceedings bring out the fact that at the end of the war we are likely to have a merchant fleet larger than that of any other country in the world—a different relative position than the one we held at the beginning of the war. This fleet will be very largely owned by the Government, and it is a problem that must be decided as to whether we are going to sell the yards, lease them, or to operate them under Government ownership. Government ownership crops up in every industrial problem.

Another immense problem confronting the Government and the country, affects the manufacturing plants and other establishments created for war purposes, the machinery for which may or may not be available for after-war production. It is likewise considered a subject for the immediate present to decide what we are going to do with the millions of war workers now so busily employed who will find themselves out of employment when peace has been declared. It appears imperative that the Government must take some action to protect its war workers. The Government has an endless number of buildings now being used for exclusive war purposes, and it must be determined what is going to be done with these buildings. What also is to be done with the houses the Government has provided for its war workers? Surely all this vast equipment must not deteriorate or go in the scrap heap. At the same time the Government cannot always "do it all." Private initiative must return to bear its burdens, for it is very clear that co-operate industry will not solve the problem and a wise modern philosopher gives this reason: "Because inevitably the few must always lead and the many must follow, which renders just co-operation impossible of realization until human nature itself is changed."

The Spirit of the Liberty Loan.

Secretary McAdoo does everything. One day he worked "our street, in Washington, and as the result of an door-to-door canvass sold $1,800,000 worth of Liberty Bonds. When he got through the Secretary commented: "It was great. I wish I had time to get out and see everybody."

The fine spirit of the war workers in Washington is of interest in connection with the Liberty Loan. Thousands of young women from all parts of the country who will challenge the right of any restaurateur to overcharge them a jifney piece on their food, and who will fight like their Concord and Lexington ancestors against attempts of room-renters to hold them up, are plunking down their last dollar, and mortgaging their future incomes, in the purchase of Liberty Bonds. Perhaps this spirit does not differ much from that which exists in every community, but the whole young womanhood of the Nation is represented by people forming the community of war workers at the National Capital. And in the words of Mr. McAdoo there isn't a girl among them who is not out to give the Kaiser "another push." They are matching the big business men, who as voluntary war workers in the Capital, are splendid in meeting their responsibilities toward the Government.

All Are Working.

To line up every Catholic force in the United States behind the United War Work Campaign, seven representatives of the National Catholic War Council have begun 50,000 miles of traveling that must cover the entire country within two weeks. The head of every province of this church from coast to coast will be visited by these agents, who will lay before him the plans of the National Catholic War Council to rally eighteen million Catholics behind their joint campaign for funds with the K. of C., Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., War Camp Community Service, Salvation Army, Jewish Welfare Board and American Library Association. Dr. John R. Mott, Chief Executive of the Y. M. C. A., is making a speaking tour of the Middle West to aid the drive.

James A. Flaherty, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, has asked every Council in the United States to send out speakers.

The Jewish Welfare Board has thrown its entire strength into the campaign to help the boys who are fighting in France.

Looking To Our Foundations.

One has said that the owner of a house in turning over his keys to his care-taker when departing upon a journey naturally expects that both the house and keys will be returned to him in proper order. Thus the concerns that have been thrown under Government control, and all of which are doing their part in upholding the hands of the Government, are very much interested in knowing what will be the permanent policy of the United States when military necessities no longer dominate the affairs of mankind. Just at present America is presenting a united front that knows no other purpose excepting "to win the war." However it is well for everybody to understand that the Socialists, and the other radicals throughout the country, are leaving no stone unturned in attempting to make Government control and regulation of industries permanent. There is apparently no thought of yielding to the American Bolsheviks who are attempting to "put one over on Uncle Sam" while he is busy with the Huns.

Democracy's Paramount Duty

The paramount duty of Democrats in this campaign is so plain that argument seems unnecessary and appeals useless. Fully realizing this, Senator Beckham and Gov. Stanley have buried their differences and shaken hands across the bloody chasm, beg all their followers to do likewise by forgetting the past and looking only to the future stand like a stone wall for unity and democracy. That the advice is being heeded appears on every hand as a harbinger of that glorious victory that can come only by united effort. The Democrats have already made up their minds to elect Gov. Stanley and the nominees for Congress and all hedges can not prevail against the determination.

Faithful Unto Death.

Not a week before the hand of death was laid on Gov. Jas. B. McCreary, he wrote to headquarters in Louisville offering his services to speak for Stanley and the other Democratic nominees. No more honest and faithful statesman ever lived nor one whose democracy was so full a part of himself as he who has just gone to his reward. If he could speak to the people from the other shore, his appeal to "keep the faith as I did and by voting the Democratic ticket, stand by your matchless President in this crucial hour."

Can Present No Valid Reason.

There is not a single valid reason

THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.

Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organic troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do my housework. I had the best doctors in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. Binzer, Black River Falls, Wis.

It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Binzer that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, nervousness, displacements or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. presented by the Republican nominee for the Senate and his supporters for his election. The only excuse for his candidacy is that he wants the office and they want a Republican victory. They do not pretend that he is as well equipped for the office as Gov. Stanley, nor that he could do more toward winning the war, if elected, than he. If the Republican nominee were equally as capable as the Governor, he would take at least two years to acquaint himself with legislation and begin at the bottom, whereas the Governor, with his twelve years of Congressional experience would at once become a power in the body. If Bruner were ten times as competent, there would still be no reason to have a Republican succeed Senator James and all things considered, it would be a National calamity for him to do so. Stamp under the rooster and help send a real friend to support the President.

ENGLISH COMMENT ON GERMAN'S REPLY TO WILSON

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The German reply to President Wilson is regarded here as "not business, but mere argument and protestation." In government, diplomatic and political circles, the view is that it is not a reply, but simply a resort to verbiage designed to cover the absence of reply. One highly placed official described it as "badly camouflaged insincerity." The government has not considered the reply in detail, although Premier Lloyd George and his colleagues held protracted deliberations.

Henry Hindman, leader of the British Socialists, said: "The reply is simply another piece of shuffling. I hope President Wilson will answer it very abruptly and briefly. At any rate, he has given Emperor William an opportunity to say that he and his people are one in the same sort of duplicity and treachery to which we have been treated throughout the war."

"Peace should be signed in Berlin," declared Lord Charles Beresford, "For a country that has been butchered, for other countries that have been devastated and for the millions of women that have been wronged, Germany shall meet her doom."

Lord Northcliffe said: "The President, who dealt so firmly and shrewdly with the previous German attempts to entangle him in wordy discussion, may be trusted to compel the German Government to show whether it really intends unconditional surrender, which alone can satisfy the demands of the military and naval authorities of the Allies, or whether it simply is playing for time."

Newspapers, almost without exception, view the German reply with impatience and distrust. "Germany Still Impenitent," is the caption on the editorial of the Chronicle, which dismisses the reply as obviously unacceptable.

"A monument of insincerity" is the way the Times characterizes the German reply. The Times continues: "An armistice is to be had on terms laid down by the military and naval authorities of the associated forces. It is not to be had on the enemy's terms for upon any terms that leave room for subterfuge."

According to the Express "the nigger in the woodpile" in the German reply is the desire "for an armistice based on an elaborate estimate of the rival forces as they are to-day." This the paper says, is a "disingenuous twist of the Wilson conditions."

PARIS, Oct. 24.—The German reply to President Wilson is viewed here generally as betraying more than previous communications the state of depression and the demoralization of the German people as the result of the Allies' victories. As a whole, the note is found to be so equivocal and tortuous, and plausibly phrased as to leave the door open for all sorts of quibbling. Nowhere is there evidence in the reply of a genuine desire to accept the only way in which peace can be concluded, according to expression of opinion here. On the contrary, all that is apparent is the urgent desire of the German General Staff to get an armistice at any price in order to reorganize its reserves of men and material. Therefore, it is generally believed that the reply is not likely to be considered at Washington.

The Fargo says that the men who combined to write the reply to President Wilson have "translated the anguish, disarray and powerless anger of the people in whose name they pretend to speak."

The Matin—"The German note is a typical document. In it are expressed the sentiments of a barbarous people who failed in a foray. There is not a word in the note which reveals the stoical strength of which France and other nations have so often given proof in misfortune."

The Journal says the note seeks to divide the Allies.

Col. De Thomasson, in the Petit Journal: "The note is proof that the German high command considers the situation of its armies, most grave, but not yet desperate."

L'Homme Libre—"The German government is again trying to quibble."

Marcel Cachin, writing in Humanite, says: "On every point the German government clearly shows an effort at concealment. We may observe that a new step toward a just peace has been made this day."

THINKS GERMAN'S SCHEME TO SPLIT ALLIES.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—The majority of the House of Commons are hostile to Germany's reply, regarding it as an attempt to split the allies.

Solf's armistice plan is not sufficient, they declare. The constitutional changes referred to, they point out, are contained in a bill which has not yet been passed by the Reichstag.

FOR COLDS AND GRIPPE DOCTORS ADVISE

The Improved Calomel Tablet That Is Entirely Purified of All Nauseating and Dangerous Qualities.

Physicians are warning the public against trifling with colds, influenza and grippe. They say that a brisk calomel purgative, preferably Calomel tablets, the new and improved calomel tablet, should be invariably taken at bed time and repeated the second or third night, if necessary. In the earliest stages, one Calomel is usually sufficient unless the case is particularly severe.

Physicians say that it is a waste of time and is dangerous to experiment with other laxatives, as calomel is absolutely necessary sooner or later. One Calomel on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with diet, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished, whole system is purified and refreshed. Calomel tablets are sold only in original sealed packages. Price, thirty-five cents. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists everywhere. Price refunded if you are not delighted. (adv)

HUNS DESERTING THE BELGIAN COAST LINE.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Germany has apparently lost the whole of the Belgian coast, which for four years has been the base of submarine and aerial attacks against England and English shipping.

Ostend has been taken. Lille has been occupied, Douai has fallen to the Allies.

Belgians are reported to be in Bruges which is only eight miles from the Dutch frontier.

German forces, defeated and virtually demoralized, are said to be in full retreat toward Antwerp.

Over a wide section of the front in Belgium and northern France, the British, French and Belgian armies have swept forward with relentless speed, pressing rear guard detachments left behind by the Germans to retard pursuit.

Immense quantities of materials have been captured by the Allies, and the number of prisoners taken is steadily mounting.

Keeping step with this movement, although at a slower pace, the allied forces further south have been moving ahead.

From reports, it would appear that two American contingents are operating on a front east of Camrai and St. Quentin. One is working with the British and aiding in the advance into the German defenses east of Le Cateau.

The other is with the French and is materially assisting in the attempt to smash in the right flank of the German salient northeast of Laon.

In both these regions, the Allies have found German resistance very stubborn, and have been forced to fight their way ahead in the face of withering gusts of bullets and shells from the German armies, which have apparently turned at bay.

It is probable that east of Le Cateau, the Germans are standing on the line of the defensive zone established to support the Hindenburg system which is now gone.

Further south the enemy is evidently holding the Allies at bay until the forces retreating from the Laon salient can make their escape.

Do You Need Glasses?

Let us make a thorough, scientific examination of your eyes, based on ethical grounds, not to recommend glasses unless you need them. Ask yourself these questions: "Do I have headaches, nervous spells, drawn, tired eyes? Do I see spots before my eyes? Answer fairly and squarely, for your own good, for over-strain repeatedly day by day will break down the delicate nerves and muscles of the eyes and irreparable injury may result. Our years of experience insures accurate results."

LETTERS FROM BOURBON COUNTY SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Mrs. G. F. Collins, of Scott avenue, received the following letter recently from her husband, Private G. F. Collins, who is in France with the American Expeditionary Forces:

"Dear Wife: I am very well at the present time and am getting along all right now. I had a few hard days, but things are better now. I have seen lots of this country (France) since leaving the States. I would have written to you sooner, but I had the hardest kind of time in getting hold of paper and envelopes, and we have been moving about so much. Honestly, I haven't been in one place long enough to write. I don't think I will have an opportunity to write very often now, for I am near the front, and I rather think I will have something else to think about. Have the boys been drafted into the service yet? I suppose they have closed the factory about this time. I have been transferred from the infantry to the machine gun company. I will have some hard work to do, but that is nothing more than I expected, and am willing to do my duty, whatever it is and wherever it is, in the very best way I can—and that's the only way a Kentuckian knows how to do anything—to do it right and do it well and do it so it counts. The time has come now when I can do something for my country, and that country shall never have it to say that I failed to respond. From what we learn over here I am going to get to see you in a few months at the very least. I am getting plenty of good, wholesome food and plenty of work, and have no complaint. Uncle Sam is mighty, mighty good to his boys, and that is the reason they are working themselves on this job of putting the Hun out of business. Well, I guess this is about all I will get a chance to write this time, but I will try to steal a little more time for the next one. Tell all the folks not to worry about me, for, like tens of thousands of other boys in this country, I am getting along all right. My address now is as follows: Machine Gun Co., 356th Infantry, American Expeditionary Force, France. With love, I am,

"FRANK."

Mr. Henry J. Santen, of Scott avenue, recently received the following letter from his son, Bernard J. Santen, formerly of Paris, who is now in the service somewhere overseas. The letter was written on Sept. 27. In it Mr. Santen says, in part:

"I have just received your letter written Sept. 8th, and I was glad for I had come to the conclusion that something was wrong as I had not heard from home but once since leaving the South, outside of the letter from Sister, which was received Thursday night. I can't imagine what ever became of the one you wrote from Dan Jordan's, as it, like the box from Harry James' was certainly mailed in plenty of time to have reached me before we left the States.

"This is the third camp I have been in since arriving here, but we are at last settled, and will be here until the time comes for us to leave for the front, which will be as soon as we have finished our training with the French 75's, which are the kind we use. Our first camp was at (deleted by the censor) where we arrived on Sept. 8, and we were there until Sept. 25th. We marched from (deleted by the censor) to this place, a distance of twenty-two miles, in six hours actual marching, and I wasn't one bit tired when the journey was over, as I am getting stronger every day, and can stand twice as much as I could before leaving home. I now weigh one hundred and sixty-eight pounds and am getting heavier every month. So, tell Henry and Herman to look out when I come back, as I will be prepared to give them a hard scrap, which I would not have been able to do before going into the army.

"This is a fine camp, and is fixed up with nice barracks. We have straw mattresses to sleep on, placed on iron cots, and the best I have had since leaving Camp Taylor. We have also nice hot showers where one can take a nice hot bath, so, all in all, I like the place just fine, and am perfectly contented with everything. We are getting our first lessons with the guns, and I do hope I can fit myself for a position on the gun squad, as I want to be where I know each shot that I help to send into the Germans is making the time shorter for a glorious triumph for Uncle Sam. Of course, anything I would do would be helping that, but I just want to be where I will be in some active part of the game all the time.

"If you will go to the Red Cross at home you can find out if anything can be sent out now for Christmas, and if it can be done, then I would like to have a box with some good things to eat in it, and some Sonadas, so please find out what can be done. I have plenty of woolen clothes to do me this winter—three sweaters, a helmet, and four pairs of woolen socks. We will no doubt be here a couple of months more or less, and then we will be ready for action. All of us are wishing for a chance to show the stuff we are made of. As we are not permitted to tell very much, you will have to guess the best you can about where I am, and what is going on. The more I see of France the better I like it, and the further inland we go the prettier the country becomes. But at that I would not trade an acre of good old Kentucky bluegrass land for the whole of it, and I believe that is the opinion of all the boys.

"Tell all who ask about me that I am in the very best of health, contented and happy, and that it won't be so very long before it is all over and we will be coming back home, after having licked old Kaiser Bill and his bunch to a frazzle. With love to all, and especially to mother and yourself—but, wait a minute—were you on the right side of the ball games, or were you a Cub rooster? Good night, dad, and love to all.

"Lovingly Yours,
"PVTE. BERNARD J. SANTEN,
"Battery B., 149th N. L. F. A., American E. F., Via New York."

From the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, where he is stationed in a clerical capacity in the main office of the Administration Building, Jas. M. Templin, formerly of Paris, writes to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Templin, in this city under date of October 19, as follows:

"Dear Father and Mother—All of the boys but one have gone out on shore leave and I thought there would be no better time than the present to write you while all is quiet. The Great Lakes Naval Bands have all returned to the Station, and when I was coming down to work this morning I was much surprised to meet these consolidated bands forming one great band of five hundred pieces, and take it straight from me they made 'some music.' They all marched down in front of the Administration Building, where the usual flag-raising was carried out. I think it was one of the most beautiful and inspiring sights I have witnessed since I have been here, to see Old Glory going up while the great band played patriotic airs, and in all directions the sailors stood as still as statues, at salute. I tell you it makes those queer funny feelings traveis your spinal column. Unless you are in uniform you can't appreciate what that flag stands for, and we consider it a privilege to fight for it and back it with every ounce of our being. The boys back home don't know what they are missing, for some day the soldiers and sailors are coming back home and then we will see who has that funny feeling. I'll venture to say that it won't be the sailors and the soldiers.

"One of my friends by the name of Carrington left this morning for a six-days' furlough. He brought over a big cake and a box of candy for me to stand sponsor for in his absence. I assured him that I would do it justice, and that all I asked was for a fair trial. He lives in Detroit, Mich., and is an expert accountant, and one of the finest chums I have run across. Work has been unusually heavy the past few days, as we have sent out about three thousand men as firemen, machinist mates, quartermaster and second-class aviation, londsman, electricians, third-class and hospital apprentices. In fact, there has been a heavy drain on the Station from five of our naval bases.

"Everything in Chicago and Milwaukee has been closed up on account of the influenza scare, but the Station as a whole is practically free of the disease. There is a serum which the army and navy are using which is said to practically eliminate the disease, but the unusual part of it is that if an overdose is given it will merely make the patient sick, but if an underdose is injected it is apt to prove as fatal as the disease itself. So you see it is quite a job for the doctors to judge accurately the requirements for each patient.

"Well, it is now nine o'clock, or six bells by naval time, and as I hear the tramp of the office employees passing along the hall by my door on their way to the barracks, I must now close, and put off to the future what I shall have to write. Hoping to hear from you soon, I am,

"Your Devoted Son,
"JAS. M. TEMPLIN."

Mrs. Charles D. Tackett, of Paris, has received a letter from her son, Private Charles Tackett, of Paris, who has been in France for some time. Mr. Tackett was for some time assistant ticket agent at the Louisville & Nashville office in Paris. In his letter, which was undated, he says:

"Dearest Mother: Well, here I am still somewhere in France, and still without an address. I can't say when I expect to have one, but let us hope it will be some time in the near future. It seems years since I have heard from you or any of my friends.

"Mother, I am real lucky in seeing boys that I knew in the States. Today I saw a couple of fellows that I chummed with when I was at Ft. Thomas, and I also saw an old friend that went to the M. M. I. the same time I did. But I saw him in England, not here. It sure does make a fellow feel good to talk to an old friend. The part of France I am now in is sandy and it has been raining all the time, but still we are very comfortable, and we have no complaint to make. Mother, I carry all the letters that I have received from you in my shirt, and if I have read them once I have read them a hundred times, and I expect to read them a good many more times. I guess the new draft will get a good many of the boys and many men from around Paris, and that they are beginning to go to the camps by now. I don't think they'll ever see service over here, for the Germans are beaten, and badly beaten now, but it is going to take those squareheads about three months to find it out after all the rest of the world knows it to be a fact. They are surely a wooden-headed bunch. I guess you see a lot of peace talk in the papers, but I do not believe peace will be made on paper. The only way will be to fight it out, and that won't take much longer. It would not surprise me if the war is over by the time you receive this letter, and by Spring our troops will begin to return to America. The next time Edward comes over tell him to tell Mr. W. V. Shaw that his former assistant will soon be back ready to take up the old job. Mother, when I get my address I will write to you as soon as possible, so that you can answer, as I will be anxious to hear from you. Give all my friends my best regards, and tell them I would like to write to each one of them, but that would of course be impossible. Well, there comes the bugle call, so I will have to close. With love, I am

"Devotedly Yours,
"CHARLES."

Mrs. W. H. Fisher, of this city, is in receipt of the following letter from her son, Capt. Neville Fisher, a former member of the Bourbon county bar, who enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam while engaged in the practice of law in St. Louis. The letter bears date of Sept. 24, and is a very interesting one. The letter follows:

"Dearest Mother: It has been several weeks since I had an opportunity to write to you, but these have been rather eventful weeks. I went 'over the top' with the company on September 12th in the great American advance, known as the battle of St. Mihiel salient. I think our company went into the fight under the most trying circumstances of any organization engaged. We had been holding an important sector of the front line for more than a week in trenches knee-deep in mud and water. After midnight we were relieved from this position and marched to another place where we were to jump off.

"We arrived after the preparatory bombardment had started and took up our positions, where we had a four hours' wait in the mud and rain. The scenes following are never to be forgotten. The flashes from hundreds of guns lit up the clouded skies like sheet lightning, and the noise resembled a violent thunderstorm. Shortly before five o'clock the barrage behind which the infantry was to march was laid down on the enemy's front line, and the rattle of machine guns firing over our heads for additional protection began. At five o'clock we moved out. I had intended to march between the two lines of the company, but in the noise, darkness and confusion it became necessary for me to go forward and lead the boys. So I had the honor of leading them over the top of the enemy's trenches.

"We were soon fired on by a machine gun that held us up for a few minutes, but we soon closed in on it and took its crew prisoners. I am not permitted to make any report of the casualties. I suppose we should have killed those machine gunners, as that is the custom where they hold out to the last, but we spared them, and I cannot say that I am sorry for it. From there we pressed on through the woods, meeting little opposition, but being always exposed to the fire of the German artillery. During the day the company took over one hundred prisoners. About two nights later we had a miraculous escape, but I cannot give details. I cannot yet understand how it was possible that we returned alive, except that Providence was on our side.

"During the first day I rammed a piece of barbed wire in my hand, but outside of that I have been unscratched. I had always heard that when the pinch came I would show a yellow streak a mile wide, but fortunately I was composed and was not conscious of fear or danger. I suppose it was because my mind was so occupied by other things that I did not have time to realize my own danger. I am so hampered by the censorship rules that I cannot write of the incidents as I should like to. I am sending you a clipping from The Stars and Stripes, an army paper, which will give you a general description of the battle. It was a great experience, and I am glad that I had a chance to take part in it. I wish you would send the clipping to Eva, as this is the only copy of the paper I have. The Americans have been much complimented on their victory, and deservedly so. Our division was especially distinguished.

"I am writing this by candle light in a captured German dugout, and even now the artillery is banging away on both sides. I would like to see Owen Fisher, and will try to look him up as soon as I get a chance. I have already lost the address you gave me. We have been through many physical discomforts since the first of September, but are more comfortable at present. Outside of a few minor ailments I am all right. I got a bath and a change of underwear this afternoon, and as this was the first one in about three weeks I feel much improved. I hope you are all well and that before many months I will be back with you again. With a world of love to you all, I am,

"Affectionately Yours,
"NEVILLE C. FISHER,
"Captain 355th Infantry, American Expeditionary Force, France."

WHAT TO EAT WHEN YOU HAVE A COLD.

Prevalence of influenza in Washington, D. C., has meant that something must be done towards feeding those confined to their rooms with no one to care for them. The experimental kitchen of the United States Food Administration has promptly gone about this work, sending out quantities of soup, custards, milk and crackers every day.

These are just such foods as one should eat during the first stages of a cold. The fact that colds may turn into something worse, especially during such an epidemic as the present, should be sufficient warning to any one to call a doctor at once and be careful to eat properly, that the cold may be quickly thrown off.

During the first few days eat a light laxative diet of low fuel value, letting hot lemonade or orangeade, broths or gruels with crisp toast, baked potatoes, mild stewed fruits and vegetables and milk be the chief articles of diet. This should be followed with a diet of ordinary fuel value and then as soon as the cold seems to be "broken," by one of higher fuel value than usual so as to aid the body in recovering.

SEEING THE SIGNS OF APPROACHING DISSOLUTION!

Geneva, Switzerland, Oct. 24.—Peace must not be delayed a single day on account of the Hohenzollerns if they are an obstacle to it, declares the Volks Freund, of Karlsruhe, which also is permitted to speak of the disappearance of the superstitious belief that the Emperor was chosen to rule by divine right.

The Schwabische Takwacht says everybody is convinced the allies will not accord Germany a cheap peace, "but if the glory and power of Imperial Germany is the price, the German people are ready to pay."

In permitting such items to leave Germany the German censorship apparently is preparing public opinion for coming events.

TURKEY PRICES TO SOAR.

Substitution of chickens, ducks and geese for the Thanksgiving Day turkeys in order to supply the men of the army and navy with turkey dinners is urged on the public by market experts. The Government has contracted for the entire supply of cold storage turkeys. It is said, and has also arranged to purchase most of the fresh killed fowls.

Consumers who insist upon turkey for their Thanksgiving dinners will be compelled to take their chances in a scanty market, and the prices, it is predicted, will soar sky high.

The Autumn Welworths Are Here---and the Price is Still Unchanged

—Here's an announcement of which we are justly proud, for it evidences many things about which a real service-giving store has a right to feel proud.

—First, it stresses the point that we will keep prices as low as we can as long as we can.

—Second, it proves the benefit to the consumer of our intimate co-operation with worthy manufacturers.

—Thirdly, it exemplifies a style service, which brings us the new styles first, the same styles on the same day as they first appear in the recognized style centers of the country.

These Welworths are still priced at $2.00. They now and for many months past have represented values that would warrant a much higher price. Before the end of the present year the price must inevitably be increased to $2.50.

DEATHS.

DEVAUGHN.

Eemna Lee Devaughn, seven-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Devaughn, died at the home of her parents in this city Wednesday after a short illness of meningitis. The body was interred in the Millersburg Cemetery yesterday afternoon.

HOPPER.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Hopper, aged fifty-eight, who died at her home in Headquarters, Nicholas county, Monday night, after a long illness, was held at Carlisle, Wednesday morning, at ten o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Carlisle Cemetery. Mrs. Hopper was the wife of Mr. W. R. Hopper, who survives her, and was stepmother of Mrs. J. D. Shy, of Paris.

GLASS.

Mr. Joseph Glass, aged thirty-five, died at his home in Frankfort, Tuesday, of influenza. Mr. Glass was formerly night clerk in the Phoenix Hotel, at Lexington, and was one of the most popular attaches of that hostelry. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Louise Roberts Glass, four sisters, one of whom, Mrs. Jas. Scanlon, resides in Paris, and two brothers.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, with services held at the grave in the Frankfort Cemetery.

PREWITT.

The funeral of Mrs. Jennie Prewitt, aged twenty-two, who died of influenza at her home on the J. Frank Clay farm near Paris, Wednesday, was held yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. Services were conducted at the grave in the North Middletown Cemetery by Rev. F. M. Tindler, pastor of the North Middletown Christian church.

Mrs. Prewitt was the wife of Mr. Clay Prewitt. She is survived, besides her husband, by her father, Mr. Cluke Goodpastor, who resided at her home, and three small children.

MASON.

The funeral of Mr. William L. Mason, aged forty-nine, who died at his home on the farm of Mr. Geo. K. Jones, on the Clintonville pike, near this city, at five o'clock yesterday morning after a short illness, will be held in the Paris Cemetery at three o'clock this (Friday) afternoon. Services will be conducted at the grave by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The pallbearers will be George K. Jones, James Elliott, George Pepper, James Ingels, Henry Ingels and Wm. Smart. Mr. Mason is survived by his widow and one daughter, Elizabeth.

BROOMHALL.

Influenza has claimed the life of a former Paris woman in Cincinnati. Mrs. A. R. Broomhall, who died at her home in that city last Monday of the disease. The remains were interred in Spring Grove Cemetery, Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Broomhall was the widow of the late Mr. A. R. Broomhall, who for several years was in the employ of Lowry & May, and resided on Houston avenue, in this city. After moving from Paris they disposed of their property, which is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Ardery, Jr. Mrs. Broomhall was a sister of Mrs. Frank L. Walker, wife of a Paris contractor, who now resides in Covington.

CROSTHWAIT.

The body of Mr. Charles B. Crosthwait, aged sixty-five, a former resident of Paris, who died in Chester, Pa., Wednesday, of influenza, will probably arrive here today, when services will be held at the grave in the Paris Cemetery, conducted by Rev. Geo. R. Combs, pastor of the Paris Methodist church. The pallbearers will be James McClure, M. F. Kenney, Chas. E. Butler, L. J. Fretwell, Harvey Hibler and E. B. January. Mr. Crosthwait was an uncle of Mr. Louis Lilleston, and the Misses Lilleston, of Paris, and resided here many years. After leaving Paris he became a traveling salesman. He will be well remembered by the older generation of Paris people.

KENTON.

The first victim of influenza in this city was Mrs. Frances Kenton, aged twenty-two, who died at the home of her husband, Mr. John Kenton, on Fifteenth street, at an early hour Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Kenton was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Masterson. Besides her parents, she is survived by her husband, Mr. John Kenton, six brothers, James, Roy, Forrest, Hardy, Ollie and C. T. Masterson, Jr., and two sisters, Misses Viola and Georgia Masterson, all of Bourbon county.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The pallbearers were six young ladies, personal friends, Misses Nora Hutsell, Lena Hutsell, Sophia Hutsell, Lucy Henry, Jeanette Green and Hazel Green.

CHILDS.

Friends and acquaintances in this city have received information of the death of Mr. Roy H. Childs, aged forty-five, which occurred at his home, 1722 Waverly Place, in St. Louis, Mo., Sunday morning at eight o'clock. Mr. Childs had been ill for several days with pneumonia. He was well known in Paris, where he was a frequent visitor during his residence in Lexington, and has many friends here who will regret to learn of his demise.

Mr. Childs is survived by his son, Mr. J. B. Childs; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Childs, and one brother, Mr. Jos. Childs. His wife, formerly Miss Mary Bacon, of Lexington. The funeral was held in Chicago, Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, the burial following in Woodlawn Cemetery.

GREGORY.

Mr. W. K. Gregory, an aged and well-known citizen of Cynthiana, died at his home in that city, about four o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, after a short illness of infirmities of age. The funeral will be held at ten o'clock this (Friday) morning, with services conducted at the grave in Battle Grove Cemetery, Cynthiana, by Rev. J. D. Armistead.

Mr. Gregory was a resident of this county for many years, having resided on a farm near Ruddles Mills. He moved to Cynthiana a few years ago. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Talbott, of Cynthiana, and Miss Anna Gregory, of Pineville.

Mr. Gregory was an uncle of Mrs. Grant Denton, of Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Denton will attend the funeral at Cynthiana this morning.

INGELS.

The body of Mr. George W. Ingels, aged twenty-nine, who died in Toledo, O., Monday evening, after a brief illness of influenza, was brought to Paris, Tuesday night, accompanied by his father, Mr. Ed. H. Ingels, and members of the family. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock, with services conducted at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by Rev. Dr. C. C. Fisher, of Millersburg. The pallbearers were John Kreiner, Jaynes Savage, Jno. Williams, Bennett Tarr, John Christman and Dr. J. H. Comer.

Mr. Ingels was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Ingels, of Paris. He had been a resident of Toledo for several years, having been engaged in a munitions manufacturing plant there. He is survived, besides his parents, by his widow and three daughters, Misses Catherine Ingels, Anna Fisher Ingels and Loretta Ingels.

GORHAM.

After a brief illness of pneumonia Mr. Fred Gorham, aged forty, a former resident of this city, died at Columbus, New Mexico, where he had been for some time seeking a restoration to health. The body was sent to Louisville, his former home, for burial. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon in Cave Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Gorham was a son of Mrs. Mary N. Gorham, who was a resident of Paris for many years, now residing in Carlisle. He was born in this city, and attended the public schools. After leaving Paris, he settled in Lexington, where he was manager of the Cumberland Telephone Co.'s office. Later on he became associated with the Ohio Valley Bank at Henderson. When the call to the colors came he responded at once and enlisted in the army service. He was stationed at Columbus, New Mexico, as a member of the Headquarters Troop, Twelfth Cavalry. He had seen service before, having been a member of the First Kentucky Regiment, which won honors in Porto Rico, and in Cuba during the Spanish-American war.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Mary Gorham, one brother, Mr. Thornton Gorham, of Sharon, Pa., and one sister, Mrs. Georgia Gorham Whitehouse, of Louisville.

BOWEN.

Following an operation performed for appendicitis at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, Wednesday night, Mr. Ira Bowen, aged thirty-eight, died at the institution at five o'clock yesterday morning. The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of George W. Davis, where it was prepared for burial.

Mr. Bowen was a native of Carlisle, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Bowen, of that city. He became identified with the telegraph and railroad business at an early age, and for several years had filled important positions in the service of the Louisville & Nashville at different points on the line. For the past few years he had been stationed in the office of the Train Dispatcher of the Louisville & Nashville, in this city, where he gained an enviable record for faithfulness and efficiency. A few weeks ago Mr. Bowen was transferred to the office at Paris, where the Louisville & Nashville maintain extensive yards. He was relieved a day or so ago on complaining of being sick, and symptoms of appendicitis manifesting, an operation was decided upon. Mr. Bowen was a prominent member of the local Knights of Pythias Lodge and other fraternal orders. Besides his wife, he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Bowen, one brother, Mr. W. F. Bowen, of Myers Station, and one daughter.

The funeral services will be held at the grave in the Paris Cemetery by the Knights of Pythias at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The pallbearers will be, Messrs. J. K. Cahal, T. M. Funk, L. Wollstein, E. L. Shanklin, Robt. L. Harney and Charles Green.

KERENKOHLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hibler, of this city, received a telegram yesterday from their daughter, Mrs. Jessie Hibler Herrenkohl, announcing the death at Sharpley, near Huntington, West Virginia, of her husband, Dr. Herrenkohl. The telegram stated that his death had resulted from pneumonia, after a very short illness.

Dr. Herrenkohl, it was stated yesterday, was the only physician in that vicinity who was able to keep practicing, the others having been prostrated by days and nights of unremitting efforts to counteract the influenza plague, which had become epidemic there. He himself had been kept going day and night, and finally pneumonia overtook him. The presumption was that his death had been hastened by overwork. Mrs. Herrenkohl advised her parents not to come on account of the influenza there.

REGULATIONS REGARDING OVERSEAS CHRISTMAS SHIPMENTS

All relatives and friends of U. S. soldiers overseas, who contemplate sending them Christmas packages, should first inform themselves regarding the U. S. requirements governing same.

Some of the rules governing the shipment of packages to the soldiers overseas are given below as follows: The Red Cross Chapter will have charge of wrapping and inspecting all packages for overseas forces.

Each American soldier overseas has received from his commanding officer one label which he will mail to some person who is planning to send him a Christmas parcel.

These labels ought to arrive about Nov. 1. After that date the local Chapter hopes to have on hand the boxes which are required to hold these packages and they will be given out to those presenting labels.

Don't lose your labels. Duplicates can not be issued.

No box can be sent without a label and only one has been given to each soldier.

The total weight of box must be under three pounds. Postage is twelve cents a pound, or fraction of a pound.

Box must be taken to Red Cross to be inspected, weighed, wrapped and stamped. Postage to be paid by the sender.

No Red Cross Christmas packages will be mailed out by postoffice after November 15.

Packages for men in the navy are not sent through the Red Cross, but through the Postoffice under entirely different restrictions.

Place and hours for receiving packages will be announced later.

For any additional information, phone Mrs. Walter Payne, Chairman of the Parcels Post Committee in Bourbon County, over Cumberland Phone 434.

HURRY! SAVE PENALTY!
Pay your city taxes on or before October 31st, last day, and avoid penalty, which will be attached to all unpaid Taxes on November 1st.

W. W. MITCHELL,
City Collector.

UGLY RUMORS CONFUTED BY STATEMENT OF NURSE

For some days rumors have been rife here regarding the alleged neglect of the sick soldiers at Camp Zachary Taylor. The following is a statement made by Mrs. Ida Ray, of Paris, who has been assisting at Camp Taylor:

"Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky.,

"October 18, 1918.

"Brigadier-General Fred T. Austin,

"Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky.

"Dear Sir:—I wish to make the following statement:

"For eight days and nights I was in a ward in the Hospital. The patients there couldn't possibly have been treated better, even if they had been in their own homes. The nurses were faithfulness itself. The physicians never, never lagged. They were always there. There was never a minute when I was in the wards when you could not get access to a physician. During the stress of this awful calamity I wondered how they did it. If these boys had been the children of princesses they couldn't have received better treatment. I have never seen sick people better treated.

"Yours Very Truly,

"MRS. IDA RAY."

RECENT RAINS BENEFICIAL

The recent rains came as a great relief to the country, and will revive fall grass for winter grazing. They were also a great help to wheat that was sown early and will make it take root, thus preventing freezes later on from raising it out of the ground. The rains have also started the springs that had gone dry.

READ PAGE THREE.

On page three of this issue of THE NEWS our readers will find a number of highly interesting letters from soldier boys who are "over there," and an especially interesting one from Capt. Neville C. Fisher, formerly of Paris, who describes, as far as the censorship regulations would permit, the participation of his company in the battle of St. Michel saillant, in France. Other equally interesting communications from former Paris boys will be found on that page, all well worth perusing.

SOME KERSHAW.

Ford & Co. have on display in their show window, a giant kershaw, raised by Mr. Charles R. White, on his farm near Paris. The kershaw pulled the scales down to the forty-five pounds mark, and if the weigher's foot hadn't slipped, the vegetable might have gained five pounds more. It is a veritable wonder in the vegetable line. A group of colored men were admiring it Sunday afternoon, and speculating how many pies it would make, when one of them spoke up and said: "Buddies, it would make just one fer me, and nobody to help eat it either."

NOTICE TO TURKEY RAISERS
The Food Administration has issued the following to dealers in turkeys:

"Refrain from purchasing turkeys intended for Thanksgiving markets for shipment East after November 16th. Turkeys for shipment to points East must be loaded and ready for shipment not later than Tuesday, November 19th."

To comply with these rules we will be compelled to commence receiving turkeys about November 5th.

DRAFT EVADER TAKEN TO COVINGTON FOR TRIAL.

United States Marshal Arthur Vest, of Frankfort, took Tom Combs, of Morgan county, from Paris to Covington, Tuesday, for trial in the Federal Court on a charge of evading the draft service in the army.

Combs was arrested here by Chief of Police Link and Patrolman Lusk as he was endeavoring to "hobo" his way to Winchester on an outgoing L. & N. freight train. He was placed in the Paris jail on a vagrancy charge nominally, while an investigation was in progress. It developed that he was a "slacker" and had evaded the draft service in his home county. Chief Link notified the Federal agents, and Combs' removal to Covington followed as a result.

THE WAR'S RECOMPENSE.

Mrs. May Stoner Clay hands THE NEWS the following beautiful little poem, clipped from a St. Louis daily paper. These lines were found on the body of an Australian soldier killed in action on Flanders Field: Ye that have faith to look with fearless eyes,

Beyond the tragedy of a world of strife,
And know that out of death and might shall rise
The dawn of ampler life,
Rejoice whatever anguish rend the heart
That God has given you a priceless dower,
To live in these great times and have your part
In Freedom's crowning hour.
That you may tell your sons who see the light
High in the Heavens, their heritage to take
"I saw the power of darkness put to flight,
I saw the morning break."

POPULAR ARTIST TO TEACH PARIS CLASSES.

Albert d'Scheu Haberstro, basso cantante, composer and teacher of voice, has been engaged by the Lexington College of Music.

Mr. Haberstro is an American. New York is his native State as well as that of his father. He comes to Lexington from an extensive four months' singing engagement, which covered Southern and Western States, from California to Kansas. While trained by prominent American teachers he has had two celebrated voice coaches in Harry Lautz, of Darmstadt, Germany, and William Shakespeare, of London, England. Mr. Haberstro is a college man, educated in law, with degree and admitted to the New York bar, where he practiced that profession for several years. He soon turned his full attention to music which had been a study since his youth.

Mr. Haberstro has written many well-known songs and a patriotic song, "My Soldier," which is being sung extensively over the country. In this connection, patriotic, he has served his country in previous years as a member of the famous 74th Regiment, N. G., N. Y., and for five years qualified as a "distinguished expert" in rifle shooting.

Mr. Haberstro has a winning personality, fine natural voice, rich in quality, vibrant in quantity, wide compass and well colored. His repertoire consists of the best basso songs, arias, ballads and lieder.

Mr. Haberstro will have a class in Paris, at the home of Mrs. Frank Fithian, on Saturdays of each week, beginning Oct. 26. See advertisement in this issue.

Also best cathartic for bilious, constipated children—tastes like candy but never fails. Cascarets work while you sleep. (adv)

DRAFTS MUST KEEP ORDER GOING TO WAR TRAINING CAMPS.

Numerous cases of disorder on the part of draftees enroute to mobilization points have been reported to the War Department. As a result of the complaints Major Henry Rhodes notified all local boards that immediate steps must be taken to have full reports made to commanding officers on the conduct of draftees of each cantonments. Particular attention will be paid to violations requiring arm bands, which now constitute the uniform of the draftees.

BRONCHIAL TROUBLE.

Mrs. A. E. Sidenberder, Rockfield, Ind., states: "For an attack of bronchial trouble which usually assails me in the spring I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the only thing that gives me relief. After using it for a few days all signs of bronchial trouble disappears." (adv-act)

THEY'LL BE LOOKING FOR YOU BILL!

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 24.—In Wednesday's peace riot in Berlin the Kaiser's palace was attacked, and hundreds of windows were smashed when bricks were thrown from the midst of a yelling, infuriated crowd. The Kaiser is said to have hidden in the cellar of the palace until the police, using bayonets, crushed the riot.

BASEBALL LINGO TO BE TRANSLATED FOR FOREIGN FANS

The popularity of baseball among the allied nations is spreading so rapidly that there is already a demand for simple instructions and rules of the game, printed in foreign languages. To meet these requirements several expert baseball authorities are collaborating in the preparation of a baseball primer, which will be distributed in various sections of Europe.

The pamphlet, which will be printed in French, Italian, English and Spanish, will carry the rules of the game in the simplest form. In addition, there will be pages of explanations and answers to the questions which arise among those who are playing their first contests. These questions and answers will be printed in both English and various foreign languages in parallel columns in order that when American and foreign players or spectators meet, without being able to speak the language of their opponents or neighbors in the stand, there may be a medium of communication at hand. A glossary of technical and baseball terms in all languages is also to be appended.

SPANISH INFLUENZA—HOW IT IS SPREAD.

Influenza is always spread from person to person, the germ being carried with the air along with the very small droplets of mucus, expelled by coughing or sneezing, forceful talking, and the like by one who already has the germs of the disease. They may also be carried about in the air in the form of dust coming from dried mucus, from coughing and sneezing or from careless persons who spit on the floor and on the sidewalk. As in most other catching diseases, a person who has only a mild attack of the disease himself may give a very severe attack to others.

Where crowding is unavoidable, as in street cars, care should be taken to keep the face so turned as not to inhale directly the air breathed out by another person.

ADVOCATES ARMY OF OCCUPATION IN GERMANY.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Allied occupation of Germany for at least three or four years is essential condition of any beginning of permanent peace, according to Stephane Lauzanne, member of the French High Commission in the United States. "The only way to cure the German people is to permit them to have a taste of military occupation in their own country," he said.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD—NO QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Ends Bad Colds or Grippe in a Few Hours.

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end grippe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffing! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance. Be sure you get the genuine. (adv)

WHEN HEROES MEET.

An American soldier wearing three American decorations and the ribbon of the French croix de guerre was walking down a street in Paris, France. Suddenly a French sergeant, sitting in front of a cafe, rushed up. He, too, had decorations, the medal militaire, several citations, and the fourragere, the braid worn by men whose entire regiment had been decorated. The Frenchman had recognized the American as one of the heroes of the advance in the St. Michel salient. They had fought side by side. Neither could speak the other's language. So they stood there, under the eyes of an admiring crowd, smiling at each other and shaking hands like long lost brothers.

IN EVERY TIME OF STRESS

and difficulty for over ninety years The Youth's Companion has stood by the family. It has cheered and encouraged and entertained—delighting all, informing all, and making home life and loyal sentiment the ideal of all. For 1919 the publishers intend to make the paper worth more to family life than ever before. The splendid serials alone are events in next year's reading in the family life. Hundreds of short stories and articles by great contributors, and a steady stream of helpfulness in everything from the solid and serious to the happy humor for which The Companion is famed. In these days the whole family needs The Companion, and is still only $2.00 a year for 52 splendid issues.

Don't miss Grace Richmond's great serial, Anne Exeter, 10 chapters, beginning December 12. The following special offer is made to new subscribers:

The Youth's Companion—52 issues of 1919: all the remaining weekly issues of 1918; the Home Companion Calendar for 1919—all the above for only $2.00—or you may include McCalls Magazine—12 fashion numbers—all for only $2.50. The two Magazines may be sent to separate addresses if desired.

GERMAN PAPERS CONTINUE LAMBASTING "CHIEF CULPRITS."

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 24.—German provincial and Socialist newspapers continue their campaign against the "chief culprits" responsible for the war. The Frankische Tagespost, of Nuremberg, the first paper in Germany to demand openly the abdication of the Emperor, declares that the accusation of the Crown Prince entirely is out of the question.

"The German people are searching for the guilty," says the Volks Zeitung, the organ of the Nuremberg Socialists. "The Pan-Germans and Junkers are silent to-day, but we do not forget that they are the great war inciters in Germany, that they remain the support of social and political reaction and that they are a menace to the future healthful development of the German empire. The Pan-German policy has gone bankrupt, but unfortunately it has led the German people to disaster. To the gallows with the guilty, whoever they may be!"

The Socialist Arbeiter Zeitung, of Vienna, urges the German Socialists to punish the "chief culprits" without mercy, adding: "When the German soldiers return home from the trenches, after four years of unparalleled sufferings, there will be a reckoning for the people who have led them to this catastrophe. The German people will sweep away the Junkers and take its own destiny into its own hands."

FRENCH CAPITAL IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE.

PARIS, October 24.—Paris was a riot of color and jubilation Saturday in celebration of the unbroken series of allied victories.

Allied flags fluttered everywhere, the Star-Spangled Banner being conspicuously represented in the decorative scheme.

More than a thousand captured guns are lined up on the Place de la Concorde and a big throng viewed them. An inflated German balloon is the object of great curiosity in the Tuileries Gardens, and near-by is the wreck of a Zeppelin.

For the first time since the Germans started their air raids on Paris white lights were allowed to burn in the capitol Saturday. The Place de la Concorde was brilliantly illuminated, and recalls the gay times of peace.

ALABAMA FIRST TO CAPTURE HUNS

Chaplain Tells of Exploits of Rainbow Division.

STRIKE TERROR TO ENEMY

American Boys Refuse to Give Inch to Savage Hordes of Beast of Berlin—Untold Cruelties Left in Wake of Barbarians Would Shame the Old-Time American Redskins—Yanks Are Bravest of Soldiers.

Letters received here from officers and men of the Rainbow division, who were under canvas on the Hempstead Plains, L. I., before being sent to France have created intense enthusiasm when read to the scores soon to leave for foreign service.

Chaplain Emmet P. Smith of the 167th Alabama infantry, writes that he was the first man in the Rainbow division to draw the enemy fire.

"We had just moved up over the front," says Chaplain Smith, "when the first bomb fell in our camp thrown by an enemy airplane. It fell about 100 feet from where I was standing, throwing mud, pebbles and pieces of shrapnel all about me, causing me to spill my cupful of hot coffee on my uniform and to beat a hasty retreat to a place of safety.

"I am glad to tell you that the Rainbow boys are making great history over here in France. We are all in good spirits and full of 'pep' and ready to go over at all times. Plenty of wholesome food for every man, good, comfortable clothing and first-class equipment. We could not ask for anything better, unless it is another million men from the states to help us administer the knockout blow to the kaiser and his barbarians.

Carry Terror to Hun. Our outfit carried terror to the heart of the Hun on more than one occasion, and our boys took possession of No Man's Land the first day.

"Alabama captured the first prisoners unaided by the French that any American outfit pulled off, receiving the unstinted praise of the French and American officers. Quite a number of our boys wear war medals. We hope to meet again the many residents of Long Island towns who did so much to show their wholehearted hospitality to us at Camp Mills. We hope to meet them again as men who did our best to make the world free from the domination of the unspeakable Hun.

"By the way, every German sympathizer in America ought to see what untold cruelties the Hun has left behind him. He made war on old men and helpless women and outraged tender girls and mutilated little boys. The true story of the Hun and his brutality can never be told, for many things I have seen are too horrible for the mind of a civilized person to believe. We must win this war or the world will be a hell and a slave market for German war lords to terrorize.

Bravest of the Brave. "Let the good people in the states stand by us. Send men, guns, airplanes by the thousands and thus bring the war to a speedy and definite ending and save civilization from being destroyed by modern barbarians, whose 'kultur' is terrorism and whose method of warfare would shame the old-time American redskins.

"Our American boys refuse to give an inch to the Hun. No braver men ever followed a flag than men of America in France. The New York regiment, the old Sixty-ninth, are good fighters, and they are facing the enemy like heroes. Father Duffy, the chaplain of the Sixty-ninth, is every inch a man and a soldier and the regiment is fortunate in having such a good man as chaplain. Best wishes, Your friend, E. P. SMITH.

"Chaplain 167th Infantry." Chaplain Smith resigned his pastorate to go with the famous Alabama regiment selected for the Rainbow division. He is one of the most noted of scholarly clergymen in the Southland.

LIKE FRENCH BEDS

American Soldiers Find Them Crude but Comfortable.

Go where you may behind the allied lines in France, one style of bed predominates. It is crude, but comfortable, and very popular among the troops.

The bed measures about six feet long by two and one-half feet wide. The framework is made of any material that happens to be available and the support is wire-netting or sandbags securely nailed. The legs stand about 18 inches from the floor. Where the men obtain the material for their beds is a mystery.

In the trenches, of course, no beds are to be had. A waterproof sheet and a single blanket usually suffice. In the trench dugouts officers have straw to sleep on, the utmost comfort they can expect. Men on leave from the trenches say that for the first few nights they are unable to sleep between sheets on a soft spring bed.

Friends Steal His Savings. John Smaller, a Slav of Pittsburgh, trusted two men of his own race with $600 while he held a box filled with "securities" waiting for them to return. After an hour passed he opened the box to find it filled with old papers.

GERMAN ATROCITIES CONTINUE
DESPITE PEACE TALK

It is extremely difficult to understand why, if Germany, in asking for an armistice, really desires to end the horrors of war and to tread the paths of peace, order and decency, she does not call a halt to the outrageous atrocities which her military and naval forces have been so ruthlessly committing ever since the first day of the war, and which, according to the latest dispatches, they are still carrying on during their enforced retreat from occupied cities in France and Belgium.

In this connection Jules Cambon, formerly French Ambassador at Washington, is quoted as follows:

"At the moment the Central Empires addresses themselves to President Wilson to obtain an armistice and begin negotiations for peace, the German armies renewed the horrors they have been committing in all the occupied territory: St. Quentin, Lens, Cambrai, Douai are burned, mined, ruined. Loos is now reported to be burning, following the same fate as Douai and Cambrai. St. Quentin is a mass of ruins, and the great mining center of Lens is a desert, with its buildings leveled, its population gone, and its rich mines flooded. The whole section surrounding St. Quentin has been turned into a vast cemetery. The cathedral is still standing, its jagged walls being intact, but all else a wreck. The principal street center resembles an abandoned battlefield."

The National Committee on War Damages sums up the devastation as follows: "Despite the reprobation of the world, the German war practices are constantly being accentuated and intensified. These odious proceedings have transformed hostilities into abominable brigandage, seeking above all the ruin of agriculture, industry, and commerce in this country."

Premier Clemenceau makes the following statement regarding these German outrages:

"All international conventions which maintain in armed conflicts traditions of loyalty and nobility have been cynically swept aside by Germany. Taken by the throat and driven backward, he still seeks to vent his hate upon the country from which our soldiers drive him foot by foot."

CAN NOW EAT AND SLEEP IN COMFORT.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am to-day entirely well!" (adv-act)

WAR WHOOPING INDIAN
CHASES 20 GERMANS

Works So Fast That Even the Enemy Stops to Watch
Crazed Redskin's Actions.

One North Dakota Indian is a match for 20 Germans, according to a letter received at Mandan, N. D., from Sergt. E. H. Tostevin, now in service in France. The Indian is Charlie Rogers, a full-blooded Sioux of the Standing Rock reservation, and a member of the Eighteenth United States Infantry.

"You ought to have seen that Indian the first time the Boche made a raid on our trenches," writes Sergeant Tostevin. "He leaped over the parapet swinging his old rifle over his head. He let out a yell that he had saved for years, and it was a genuine warwhoop by one of the people who made war-whooping famous."

"The Germans were pretty close before we mixed. Rogers, of course, had his gun loaded with five rounds, and his bayonet fixed. After swinging his gun around his head a couple of times, he brought it down to his shoulders and emptied his shells at the enemy, swung it again, yelled and jabbed, and used the butt of his gun to smash the skull of another."

"I had my hands full all this time, but the crazed Indian's actions were so fast that we half watched him, Germans and we fellows alike. It was only a small fracas anyway. The crazed Indian's actions terrorized the Huns and they beat it for their lives."

"Rogers never got a scratch. It was in fact very much a one-man scrap, almost an exhibition. I never saw a man move so fast in my life, and I guess the Germans hadn't either."

Rogers is now being utilized as a sniper, and is enjoying himself picking off enemy snipers, Sergeant Tostevin adds, and says that other Indians in the regiment are being used for scouting and patrol duty because of the natural instinct which fits them for this kind of work.

SEES SON IN MOVIES

Mother Recognizes Boy Among Soldiers on March.

"If you ever see a moving picture camera while on the march, wave your arm, smile and say 'Hello, mamma!' Perhaps I'll see it," was the parting injunction of Mrs. H. G. Bass of Atlanta, Ga., to her son, Lieut. Arthur Bass, as he left them for service "over there."

Recently Mrs. Bass, watching a screen show, suddenly screamed and cried:

"There he is; see him smile and look. I can hear him saying: 'Hello, mamma!'"

The picture showed the Yankees marching smilingly down a long muddy road toward the trenches, when suddenly there came into view the young lieutenant, who waved his hand jauntily and his lips moved as if obeying his mother's instructions.

The picture was continued several days in the hope of showing other Atlanta boys.

Dog Eats Stamps.

A dog belonging to a Malvern (Ark.) druggist ate $4 worth of one-cent postage stamps one day. The stamps had been left on a desk by the dog's master. The dog's owner believes the dog's act was prompted by patriotism, the dog believing that the more stamps Uncle Sam sells the better for his business.

Dogs Must Stay Home.

Dogs are forbidden to run at large in Chehalis, Wash., at any time, through an ordinance passed by the city council because of many complaints of dogs injuring war gardens.

TERRIBLE PUNISHMENT

For several days the Louisville Courier-Journal has been printing a series of letters from people all over the State, who responded to the paper's invitation to state their views as what they would consider proper and fitting punishment for the Kaiser and his advisors. Mr. John B. Games, a Bowling Green, Ky., newspaper man, sends in the following, in which doubtless all newspaper men will concur as being a terrible punishment, even for the Kaiser:

"I would inflict him with a continuous case of virulent influenza and place him in charge of a country newspaper, where he would have to do all its work from manager to devil, including responsibility for the prompt delivery of the paper. No greater punishment could be visited upon him, for I have tried it and know it is hell."

STATE FOOD ADMINISTRATOR ISSUES RULING ON TURKEYS

Mr. Fred M. Sackett, State Food Administrator, has sent out the following to County Food Administrators, a copy of which is furnished THE NEWS by County Food Administrator Lawrence D. Mitchell, of North Middletown:

"I wish to call your attention to the fact that last year a great many turkeys and other birds suitable for food were wasted in the State of Kentucky through the practice of having raffles and shooting matches, and other forms of sport with these birds as prizes."

"I would appreciate your letting it be known that the Food Administration will regard any person contending such games as unpatriotic, and as failing in the spirit of food conservation, which is certainly a necessary aid to the government and the armies in this present time of emergency."

"All persons unwilling to forego such practices at this time in the interest of National Conservation forfeit the right to be considered loyal Americans."

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

MILLERSBURG

Mrs. H. D. Jones is also improving. Mrs. W. G. Dailey is improving nicely.

Mr. S. C. Bascom and Dr. J. D. Calhoun were in Cincinnati on business Monday.

T. P. Wadell and E. Martin have returned from a two-weeks' fishing trip in Estill county.

Mr. G. S. Allen and sisters, Mrs. Frankie Cook and Mrs. Jane Neal, have returned from a visit to relatives in Winchester.

Mr. J. C. Head, of Lawrenceburg, was here on business Tuesday. It will be remembered that Mr. Head was formerly manager of the Bourbon Telephone Co.

J. D. Steager, of Winchester, was arrested here by City Marshal Linville on a charge of violating the speed laws. He was taken before Judge Stewart, where he pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs. Witnesses testified that the car was going at the rate of fifty miles an hour. On reaching the curve in the pike at the end of Main street the machine ran into the house of Nellie Henderson, colored, who appeared against Steager and claimed $50 damages. Other occupants of the car were a Mr. Haggard, of Winchester, and two young women from Paris, whose names could not be learned.

The Spanish influenza is on the increase here, and unless some steps are taken by the Board of Health to check the progress it will soon invade every family in town and community. It's progress here has not been rapid, but it is evidently growing worse. Steps should be taken to see that all homes are placarded and all inmates kept in where the disease is known to exist. Loafers should not be allowed around the stores and other places of business. People should purchase what they need and then leave the business house. All persons should be kept away from the depot except the traveling public and those who must necessarily be there in some business capacity. You are not only endangering yourself, but perhaps those whom you come in contact. One family makes it a business to loaf at the depot every evening, when it is positively known that they have no business there except to soak up the L. & N. heat and watch the train come in.

In other places groups of men and women are not allowed on the streets. This should be done here, and not more than two or three should be seen together at any time. The disease can be stamped out here, as it is being stamped out elsewhere if each individual will make himself or herself a committee on one to do their part. Members of families are allowed to go at large on the streets in which the disease is known to exist, some stricken with the disease have gotten out too soon endangering themselves and others. One young man was ordered from a business house on Monday because it was believed by those in charge that he had gotten out too soon, after having been reported ill a few days ago. This must be taken in hand, it is the duty of those in authority to look after the trouble and to compel the people to comply with the regulations of the State Board of Health. Unless this is done conditions will be such in a few days that families who are stricken with the disease will be unable to get assistance and perhaps proper attention. Let us look after it at once, to save all the lives we can and prevent as many as possible from taking it.

Among those now reported to be suffering with the disease are Rev. J. W. Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stone and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bramblett and two grandsons, Miss Mildred W. Bruce, Mrs. J. O. Ralls. Those who have had it and are able to be out are Mrs. R. C. Borner and children, Messrs. Reese Ingels and Edgar McClintock, Bud Hubbard and family. Clyde Phillips has been out and is suffering a relapse.

Dr. William McClure Miller, aged sixty-nine, died Wednesday at 5:10 a. m. of a complication of diseases. Dr. Miller has been in failing health for the past three years, and has realized during all that time that the end could not be far distant. About two weeks ago he received a partial stroke of paralysis in his right side, from that time until the end he continued to grow worse.

Dr. Miller was one of the most prominent, as well as one of the most philanthropic, citizens of Millersburg. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, and was one of a family of nine children. In his early life he was traveling salesman for a well-known Cincinnati drug house. Later he opened a drug store in the room occupied by the Millersburg hardware store, then the property of the late Mr. G. W. Bryan.

After the fire of 1884 he erected a building on a lot recently purchased from Mrs. Adella Miller, now of Atlanta, Ga., and moved his drug store to this property, which he occupied until the early nineties, selling the same to Mr. H. M. Phillips, now of Winchester. He did not enter the practice of medicine as early as many of his profession, but was a successful physician, with a lucrative practice, as long as he continued as a practicing physician. For a number of years his office was at the drug store. Later he built an office, after which he formed a partnership with Dr. C. B. Smith, they continuing together for a number of years. Dr. Miller then retiring from active business life. In 1906 he organized the Exchange Bank, being one of the largest stockholders, and from the time the bank was installed until his health began to fail he was president of the institution. He has been a member of Amity Lodge No. 40, F. and A. M., since young manhood, and has gone through all the chairs of the lodge. For many years he was Senior Deacon under the late and beloved Hiram Basset, they conferring many degrees in the lodge of all the surrounding counties.

He was a life-long member of the Methodist church, and was active in church work, as in all of his undertakings. Since young manhood he has been an officer in the church and was member of the official board at the time of his death. It was largely through his effort that the present handsome Methodist church was erected. And it was one of the prides of his life. He was one of the most public spirited men who ever lived in Millersburg, always willing and ready, often times taking the lead, to co-operate in everything that was for the good of his town, county or State. He was twice united in marriage, early in life to Miss Mattie Hutchcraft. Their lives were beautiful and harmonious. No couple ever lived that was more highly esteemed in their community. Mrs. Miller died in 1903. Dr. Miller was afterward united in marriage to Miss Allie Hart, and by this union his life was brightened to the fullest extent by the birth of two charming little sons. After the birth of these children his whole life was centered in them. He lived for them, planned for them, and was ambitious for their future.

On the sixth of October, 1918, a few days before he was stricken with paralysis he celebrated his fifty-ninth birthday. Those present were his wife, two sons, one brother, Mr. Raymond Miller, of Pueblo, Colo., and sister, Miss Mary Miller, of Atlanta, Ga. It was a happy day, and while all present, including Dr. Miller, realized that the end was not far distant, none of them thought they would be called on so soon to be present at the last sad rites. He is survived by his wife, two sons, William McClure Miller, Jr., and Chas. Hart Miller, two brothers, Messrs. Raymond Miller, of Pueblo, Colo., and Lee Miller, of Atlanta, Ga.; two sisters, Mrs. R. C. Milam and Miss Mary Miller, both of Atlanta, Ga.

The funeral took place yesterday at 4 o'clock p. m., with a short service at the grave, conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. W. Gardner, assisted by Rev. J. D. Redd, P. E., of the Maysville District. All of the immediate family were present except Mrs. Milam, she being prevented by sickness. His niece, Mrs. Adams, formerly Miss Virginia Hutchcraft, was also unable to be present, she being confined at her home at Saundersville, Ga., with Spanish influenza. Many friends and relatives from the surrounding towns were present. Had it not been for the restrictions on account of Spanish influenza this would have been one of the largest funerals ever witnessed in Millersburg.

The Millersburg Red Cross Chapter sent a box of articles to Camp Zachary Taylor, Louisville, a few days ago, consisting of the following: 37 feather pillows, 32 sheets, 106 pillow cases, a lot of towels and handkerchiefs. There will be an emergency meeting of the chapter in a few days. As special work will be sent them by the War Department, all members are urged to attend this meeting.

IN MEMORIAM

CHARLES W. GILKEY

When a good citizen, an excellent neighbor and a public-spirited, patriotic man, dies, his memory and worth should receive at least a passing tribute. In the person of Mr. Charles W. Gilkey, who laid down life's burden at the good old age of seventy-eight, the community of North Middletown, where most of his life was spent, lost a splendid and honorable citizen.

Although born in Montgomery county, his active, long and useful life was spent in this community. In October, 1866, he was married to Miss Mary Aronld, a most worthy helpmate. She survives him in serene and kindly old age, a true "Mother in Israel," a most hospitable and generous friend and neighbor, "ambitious only of good deeds." Besides his wife three sons survive Mr. Gilkey—Dr. J. A. Gilkey, the able and well-known physician of Paris; Robt. M. Gilkey, the capable and popular Sheriff of Bourbon county, and Ashton Gilkey, a prominent farmer of the North Middletown vicinity.

Mr. Gilkey and his devoted wife both lived to see these sons reared to manhood, and to assume honorable and respected places in society. In this there was much to give them joy, for their home in North Middletown was ever open with genial hospitality to their many friends and acquaintances. Mr. Gilkey took deep interest in the many public questions of the day, and was ever ready to champion and defend what he deemed was right. But he is gone. The community will miss his cheery companionship, and above all, to his devoted wife, who journeyed for more than half a century by his side, who was, indeed, wife, companion, guide, and helpmate, to her the bereavement is, indeed, irreparable.

To her and to her sons the deepest sympathy of this entire neighborhood goes out, in this sad hour of their unspeakable sorrow. "One by one the lights go out, one by one our friends depart," yet He who is the Resurrection and the Life has promised that the darkest hours in this vale of tears are but the postals to an eternity of bliss, and that our friends "who have gone away" shall greet us again with "Happy Good Morning" in the realms of that "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

INFLUENZA CASES MUST BE ANNOUNCED ON CARDS.

Office Board of Health, Paris, Ky., Oct. 18, 1918. To the Physicians of Paris, Ky.: Recognizing the serious character of the present epidemic of "Epizootic," whether cases are truly Spanish Influenza or ordinary colds, this board requests that an "influenza" placard be placed on every house, where "SUSPICIOUS" cases exist and that a quarantine lasting FOUR DAYS after FEVER REACHES NORMAL, be maintained in all WELL DEFINED cases and that proper measures of disinfection and hygiene as to masks, dishes, etc., be requested.

You are requested to notify Jo S. Varden, Secretary of this Board, of existing cases at once and request of him placarding or obtain placards from him.

All of the measures suggested as to public meetings, public funerals, etc. are still in force as made mandatory by The Kentucky State Board of Health.

J. G. DAUGHERTY, C. M. WILLIAMS, JO S. VARDEN, Secretary. (Oct 22-2t)

STATE HEALTH BOARD ORDER APPLIES TO COUNTY, TOO.

Notice to the Citizens of of Bourbon County:

The order of the State Board of Health of October 6, closing all churches, theatres and other places of public assembly, public funerals, etc., throughout Kentucky, is absolutely mandatory until the influenza epidemic is over.

To correct any misapprehension that may exist, attention is directed to the fact that all orders apply to the country as well as to the towns. C. G. DAUGHERTY, C. B. SMITH, SILAS EVANS, County Health Officer, GEORGE BATTERTON, Ex-Officio Member, Bourbon County Health Board, Oct. 22, 1918. (Oct 22-4t)

LATONIA RACES POSTPONED ON ACCOUNT OF EPIDEMIC.

Followers of the racing game were again disappointed regarding the opening of Latonia races when announcement was made yesterday by Manager John Hachmeister that the opening had been indefinitely postponed. A conference of the members of the State Board of Health was held at Louisville and again at Frankfort, when an order was issued prohibiting the opening of the track on account of the influenza epidemic. Manager Hachmeister announced that he was unable to announce a date for the opening. He added, however, that the racing public may depend upon the next announced date for the opening, as he does not intend to take any more chances of disappointing the patrons of the track.

STANLEY LABOR'S STANCHEST FRIEND.

It is passing strange that anyone at all cognizant of Governor Stanley's record could for an instant accuse him of unfriendliness to labor. He has in all his acts and utterances shown his sympathy for the men who wear the overalls and earn their living by the sweat of their brows. The contract between the Lexington street car company and its men provides that whenever there is a disagreement which the representatives of the company and the men can not adjust, the Governor will be called on to name an arbitrator. Such a situation occurred recently in that city and the Governor named Hon. C. U. McElroy, of Bowling Green, as arbitrator. The Republicans immediately opened up their propaganda and made the men dissatisfied because, as they alleged, the appointee as a first cousin of the company's chief counsel. The men therefore declined to accept McElroy and appealed for a government arbitrator. It was agreed to and the differences settled. Now, Mr. H. L. Thomas, acting secretary of Amalgamated Association Street and Electric Railway of Kentucky, finds on investigation, which might have been made at first, that there is no relationship between the men named, except the only basis of the foolish statement being that the attorney's wife is distantly related to McElroy's step father. He has accordingly made due apology to Gov. Stanley and says that not only he but men and organized labor generally will give the governor hearty support. Thus falls another effort of the interested to discredit the man who is labor's heartiest champion. As Congressman and as Governor, Stanley has accomplished much for the workingman and all intelligent laborers will show their appreciation by their votes for him for United States Senator.

Extracts From Gov. Stanley's Speeches.

On March 16, 1918, Governor Stanley made a speech in Cincinnati, Ohio. The Cincinnati Enquirer, a Democratic newspaper, in its issue of March 17, 1918, reports his speech as follows:

He also sailed into the Prohibitionists by declaring there is little use of our boys laying down their lives for liberty in France "if a lot of fanatics and cranks" are allowed to deprive Americans of liberty at home. "These fanatics are worse tyrants than the Kaiser, and are bigger fools," was his parting shot.

This was quoted in an editorial in the Lexington Herald, also a Democratic newspaper, in its issue of date March 19, 1918, and that paper made this comment:

Would it not be better for the Governor of Kentucky, in whom is invested the supreme executive power of the State, to exert himself to provide a force to preserve peace in Kentucky, than to be "over there"—across the Ohio—declaring about "pellets of lead from flaming rifles" and denouncing Prohibitionists as "worse tyrants than the Kaiser and bigger fools?"
